STARYS for Business

It's not just about Risk Management

STARYS-Compliance Program

Is your compliance program for real or just "lip service"?
Are you ready to commit to the implementation of a compliance program that actually will make a difference at your workplace?

Our experience tells us, we will get your compliance management program up and running in three steps:

1. Initial Assessment of your systems and the issues at your workplace. You'll get a detailed report and a prioritized corrective action list.
 2. Three month follow up audit to check on implementation of corrective action. And to implement an ongoing compliance management process.
 3. Six month follow up to fine tune the management process and to conduct second review of corrective actions.
